RNC Announces FOX Business Republican Primary Debate with Partners Reagan Foundation, Univision, and Rumble

WASHINGTON – Today, Republican National Committee (RNC) Chairwoman Ronna McDaniel announced FOX Business, the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation and Institute, Univision, and Rumble as the partners for the second Republican presidential primary debate that will take place at the Ronald Reagan Presidential Library on September 27, 2023. As with the first debate, Rumble will be the exclusive RNC livestream provider and the RNC's exclusive online home for the second debate.

"I am excited to announce that our second Republican primary debate will be in partnership with FOX Business, Rumble, Univision, and the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation and Institute, which will serve as an iconic venue for the debate. We are looking forward to continuing our fair, neutral and transparent primary process in Simi Valley to elect the next President of the United States." – RNC Chairwoman Ronna McDaniel

"President Reagan felt strongly that the institution that bore his name should be a 'dynamic intellectual forum' where leaders would debate the future. We are excited to partner with the RNC to host the next Republican presidential candidate debate at the Reagan Library. Given the challenges and opportunities facing our country, there is no better place for presidential contenders to make their case as they honor the man — Ronald Reagan — who rebuilt America's military and economy, and changed the world." – David Trulio, President and CEO of The Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation and Institute

"FOX Business is proud to partner with Univision for the second Republican primary debate from the renowned Ronald Reagan Presidential Library to provide all Americans with an unparalleled opportunity to assess the candidates and their stances on critical issues ahead of the primary season." – Jay Wallace, President and Executive Editor of FOX News Media

"Our unprecedented partnership with the RNC and FOX Business will provide a unique platform for the Republican Presidential Candidates to address the issues facing millions of our viewers. Hispanic voters will play a critical role in determining who will be the next president of the United States and Univision's audiences will be well informed when they cast their ballot." – Maria Martinez-Guzman, Executive Vice President, Network News, NOTICIAS UNIVISION

“Rumble is excited to be the exclusive live streaming partner of the RNC for the second Republican primary debate. We look forward to continuing to build an online home for debate, on a stage that we promise will remain free from censorship and Big Tech bias.” – Rumble Chairman and CEO Chris Pavlovski
