

4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION

AT THE RONALD REAGAN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY

Friday, July 4, 2025 • All activities are FREE and open to the public!

SOUTH LAWN

12:00pm - Kicking Off A250 - July 4, 2025 kicks off the 100-year celebration of America's 250th birthday on July 4, 2026. Help us kick-off America's historic birthday at the Ronald Reagan Library with a special celebration on our South Lawn. Our short program includes a special choir performance from Los Robles Children's Choir, flyover from the Condor Squadron and more. All participants will receive a free hand-held American Flag, while supplies last and will join in a memorable group photo.

REAGAN LIBRARY COURTYARD

- 10:00am - 12:00pm: Musical performance by Justin Honsinger
10:00am - 3:00pm: Betsy Ross portrayed by Deborah F. McIntosh
1:00pm - 3:00pm: Musical performance
by Los Angeles Sheriff's Department Band
10:00am - 3:00pm: Face Painting by Paint Pals Clubhouse

ROOSEVELT ROOM

- 10:00am - 3:00pm: Presidential Bingo

RUWE TERRACE

- 10:00am - 3:00pm: Crafts, Coloring, Games, and More!
- Get your picture taken with our Presidential re-enactors.
 - Play giant Connect Four, Cornhole and Carnival games.
 - Create patriotic crafts and color.

PRESIDENTIAL LEARNING CENTER

- 10:30am - George Washington
Portrayed by David Grace
11:00am - Dwight D. Eisenhower
Portrayed by David S. Michaels
11:00am - Iwo Jima Flag Raising
11:30am - Ulysses S. Grant
Portrayed by Edward Headington
1:00pm - Thomas Jefferson
Portrayed by Peter Small
1:30pm - Abraham Lincoln
Portrayed by J.P. Wammack
2:00pm - Mary Todd Lincoln
Portrayed by Gay Storm

Special Thanks to:

Caruso

Regular admission rates apply to tour the Museum, Air Force One Pavilion, and the Dead Sea Scrolls exhibition.
All active US military with valid ID receive free admission to the Museum and Air Force One Pavilion all day.