RONALD REAGAN PRESIDENTIAL FOUNDATION AND GE ANNOUNCE COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP AWARD RECIPIENTS

20 students receive $10,000 a year for up to four years in scholarship program

SIMI VALLEY, CA-June 25, 2015- The Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation and GE announced last week the 20 students who were awarded the GE Reagan Foundation Scholarship. This scholarship program, which just completed its fifth year, awards students who embody the vision and values personified by President Reagan, including leadership, drive, integrity and citizenship. Each student will receive $10,000 a year, for up to four years, to be applied to student tuition, room, and board while the recipient is pursuing a bachelor's degree at an accredited U.S. college or university. Over the ten year program, up to 200 four-year college scholarships totaling over $8 million will be awarded.

“As we celebrate the fifth year of this scholarship program, I am deeply impressed and honored by the citizenship and character of these fine leaders,” said John Heubusch, executive director of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation. “These extraordinary young leaders would have made President Reagan proud. They will no doubt leave lasting impacts on our nation in their lifetime.”

GE Chairman and CEO Jeff Immelt said, “GE works to improve every day. Strong leaders, like Ronald Reagan and these young scholars, who are motivated and curious, are necessary to building a better future. We are proud to have President Reagan as part of our leadership tradition and know these leaders will continue his legacy.”

Nearly 13,000 completed applications were received and reviewed from students across the United States. An extensive selection process evaluated the following attributes of each candidate:

- Leadership- Scholars pursue leadership roles that have a positive impact in communities and showcase the value of lifelong learning.
- Drive- Firm believers “that our best days are ahead”scholars, have the conviction, ambition, discipline and courage to make their dreams reality.
- Integrity- Rooted in values and ethics, scholars possess the unique combination of integrity, dependability and humility that defined President Reagan’s leadership.
- Citizenship- Scholars are driven by a sense of civic commitment and actively engage in their communities to affect positive change.
