

“The Eureka College community joins the world in celebrating the extraordinary life of former first lady, Nancy Reagan,” said Eureka College President, J. David Arnold. “Mrs. Reagan’s public service to the nation was an inspiration to all Americans, but especially to our students with whom she met during her numerous visits to campus. On behalf of all the Eureka College community, our prayers are with the Reagan family.”