Dear Patti and Ron,

In these dark days of your personal sorrow, my thoughts and prayers are with you. My family and I extend our condolences to both of you and. God be with you. I cherish the friendship I had with your mother; my visits and telephone calls with her are among my fondest memories. She and your father were sincere and steadfast friends to my husband and me, and to Egypt.

Your mother's grace and unwavering love of you, your father, and your country are without a doubt her greatest legacy. The world has lost a dignified and gentle woman who will be remembered not only in her beloved country, but also all over the world. Yet no one mourns as you mourn, for you, dear Patti and Ron, have lost your mother. I pray you find comfort in your memories of her and in the knowledge that she made a difference in the lives of millions. Her style and dignity were exemplary. Most of all, I pray you find solace in knowing she was a devoted and loving mother.

With my deepest sympathy,
