

I still remember the look in her eyes at the Olympic Whitehouse visit in 1984. When I thanked her for having us at the Whitehouse, she was kind and soft spoken in her response. I could see in her eyes kindness and incredible intelligence mixed with complete sincerity that totally made me fall in love with her.

She was a force like no other as First Lady.

My heart hurts that we will no longer share this world with her,

Scott Hamilton