June 7, 2004

Dear Mrs. Reagan,

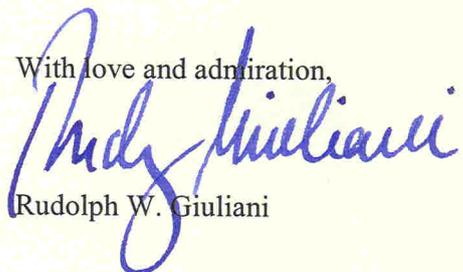

President Reagan's legacy of leadership is now a permanent contribution to the liberty of the country he loved so much. His life will be studied by those who aspire to leadership and it will inspire young people forever. That study will continue to reveal that his accomplishments were the result of a unique and loving partnership. We all admire and now understand even better the important role your love played in the career of one of our truly great Presidents.

As you gather strength to deal with the days ahead, be comforted by the knowledge that your fellow Americans understand and appreciate your remarkable contribution to our liberty and our legacy of freedom. Together you and President Reagan changed the map of Europe, brought freedom to hundreds of millions and restored America's sense of confidence as "the City on a Hill."

Please extend our love and condolences to your entire family and know that you are in our prayers.

Judith S. Giuliani

With love and admiration,

Rudolph W. Giuliani
