Dear Nancy,

It was with the greatest sorrow that we learned of The President's passing on Saturday. He was a great American who was always honest, consistent and reliable. It was a great honor to serve him and the country as United States ambassador to Canada (1981-1985).

He won the Cold War without firing a shot at the Soviet Union. What you saw is what you got. He reaffirmed our faith and purpose as a nation and led by example.

Martha and I hope to see you in Washington or California.

With love, best wishes and respect,

Paul H. Robinson, Jr.
